

Vocabulary

Poem

Me

I have ten fingers
 And ten toes,
 Two arms
 And a nose.
 One mouth
 And two ears,
 Two eyes
 For smiles and tears.
 One head
 And two feet,
 One chin
 That's me! I'm complete.

Gedicht

Ik

Ik heb tien vingers
 En tien tenen, Twee armen
 En een neus.
 Eén mond
 En twee oren, Twee ogen
 Voor glimlachtjes en tranen.
 Eén hoofd
 En twee voeten, Eén kin
 Dat ben ik! Ik ben compleet.

A

Debbie Feels Sick

ziek voorhoofd koorts medicijn tabletje erg gauw opstaan blijven opbellen

N/E + E/N

sick forehead fever medicine tablet bad soon to get up to stay
 to call

I feel sick.

Mother feels her forehead.

She has a fever.

I will get you some medicine.

Mother gives her a tablet.

I hope it's not too bad.

I hope she will feel better soon.

It is time to get up.

You'd better stay in bed.

I'll call her right now.

Dad Is Sick

vanmiddag
 wat is er aan de hand?

this afternoon
 what's wrong?

He is going to the doctor this afternoon.
What's wrong?

hoofdpijn aspirientje zere keel verkoudheid nemen denken

headache aspirin
sore throat cold to take to think

I have a headache.
Take an aspirin.
I have a sore throat.
He has a sore throat.
You have a cold.
Take an aspirin.
I think so.

David Has a Cold

buiten loopneus achterover melk sterker weten snuiten houden bloeden zich zorgen maken

outside runny nose back milk stronger
to know to blow
to keep to bleed
to worry

He has been playing outside.
You have a runny nose.
Keep your head back.
Drink this milk.
Milk will make you stronger.
I know that I have a runny nose.
You must blow your nose.
Keep your head back.
My nose is bleeding.
Don't worry about your runny nose!

B

N/E + E/N

A Visit to the School Doctor

oog oor mond been arm schouder
rug controle natuurlijk sterk

eye ear
mouth
leg arm
shoulder
back check-up of course strong

He looks at your eye.
I hear with my ear.
The doctor looks in your mouth.
My leg isn't very strong.
He looks at your arm.
He looks at your shoulder.
He looks at your back.
You need a check-up.
Of course, I'm going with you.
My legs are not so strong.

A Visit to The Dentist

tandarts tand/kies tanden en kiezen

dentist
tooth
teeth

They are going to the dentist.
I have more than one tooth.
You two have clean teeth.

saai
spiegel snoepjes beurt tandenborstel poetsen wachten uitspugen

boring
mirror
sweets turn toothbrush to brush
to wait to spit out

Waiting is boring.
The dentist has a mirror.
I don't eat many sweets.
It's your turn now.
Here is a new toothbrush.
I brush my teeth with a toothbrush.
We wait for the dentist.
Spit it out!

The Eye Test

bord opticien bril
zonnebril zonnig oogtest getal kleur uitstekend nodig hebben

board optician glasses sunglasses sunny eye test number colour excellent to need

I can't read the words on the board.
I'll take you to the optician.
Charlie wants glasses.
You could have sunglasses.
I hope it will be sunny every day.
I need an eye test.
Read this number, please.
The colour is red.
This is excellent!
I need glasses.

E

I Brush My Teeth in the Bathroom

ontbijt dopje tube tandpasta boventanden ondertanden houder keer
wakker worden opendraaien spoelen

E/N

breakfast cap tube
toothpaste
upper teeth
lower teeth
holder
time to wake up to turn on to rinse

We have breakfast.
I take the cap off the tube of toothpaste.
This is my tube of toothpaste.
This is my toothpaste.
I brush my upper teeth.
Then I brush my lower teeth.
I put it back into the toothbrush holder.
How many times do you brush your teeth?
When I wake up I go downstairs.
I turn on the cold water.
I rinse out my toothbrush.